Happy Birthday,
Flossie!

...from all of Ivyland!

You've been a part of our town for eighty years. You not only helped to create our history, you recorded much of it in the pages of The Loudspeaker!

Ivyland just wouldn't be the same without you!

All best wishes for many more Happy Birthdays!

About The Loud Speaker.:

The original Loud Speaker, founded in 1925, was a local institution not only in Ivyland but in all of the surrounding areas. Ivyland and The Loud Speaker belonged together. The paper put the village on the map, and the village matched the small town values and point of view the Editor presented. Much more than an advertising circular, the paper was filled with the wisdom and pithy humor of its editor, H. H. Eddowes. Through the years thousands of readers enjoyed the jokes, searched for “the intentional misspelled word” and were reminded of moral values. When the Loud Speaker ceased publication in 1958 something very special was lost. The “Shopping Papers” which have followed it are filled with advertising, but sadly, have none of the character, spirit and readability of the good old original. If you never were able to read the Loud Speaker, this special edition, we hope, will give some idea of what you missed.

A Message to Those In Trouble

“Call upon Me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me.”
— Psalm 50:15

“It is always better to say some-thing good about a bad man than something bad about a good man.”

Cousin Oscar, of Southampton Says:

“It isn’t Unlucky these days to come into possession of a $2 bill.

It comes in handy to buy a dollar’s worth of most anything.”

HOME

The place where you are treated best and grumble most.

BORO SCOTCHMAN Says:

“Love your enemies. They merely shoot you. Your friends levy the taxes.”

The average man is willing to try anything once — with the possible exception of hard work

-H.H.E.

See Label for Contents

Get your money’s worth. Read the net contents indicated on the label of what you buy to make sure. A tall, fancy-shaped jar of preserves may contain less than a smaller-look+ing squatty jar.

I SAY WHAT I THINK:

“Those who never take a good picture keep blaming the photographer instead of Providence.”

H. H. E.

Aunt Ella of Wanington Says:

“I was married by a justice of the peace, and I haven’t had any justice or any peace since
